CareerProfessor.works™ is a platform for students, recent graduates and alumni, which is customised to each university. It improves employability and enhances the connection between university and graduates.

CareerProfessor is the missing link between education and the world of work

CareerProfessor.works™ US Dollar Price List

The CareerProfessor.works pricing structure is based on a 'pay as you grow' arrangement, starting with an entry level of max 500 users to unlimited number of students/alumni of your institution. For less than $3,700 you can start using the CareerProfessor.works app. When you decide to add more users and/or additional services you can maximize the output but with the reassurance of a cap price of max $17,283 for a full-service employability tool.

The gamified global careers app is the core of CareerProfessor.works. You decide which add-ons suit your institution best. Add a tab with the most fundamental Careers Advice; Enhance your Community with adding messaging, a real-time world map and peer-to-peer discussion platform; Decide to get the full Coverage by adding the reporting possibilities providing you with employability data of your graduates at your fingertips.
